EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill seeks to establish the Guyana Development Bank as a statutory body corporate to provide financing and support for small and medium-sized enterprises in Guyana and to promote national economic development.

Part I contains preliminary provisions. Clause 1 provides for the short title and commencement of the Act. Clause 2 defines key terms used throughout the Bill, including “Bank”, “Board”, “loan”, and “small and medium-sized enterprise”.

Part II provides for the establishment and objectives of the Guyana Development Bank. Clause 3 establishes the Bank as a body corporate with perpetual succession and the capacity to sue and be sued. Clause 4 sets out the objects of the Bank, namely to promote and facilitate the establishment and growth of small and medium-sized enterprises in Guyana through financing and other support. Clause 5 outlines the functions and powers of the Bank, including the provision of loans, collaboration with financial institutions and development partners, and the provision of technical, managerial and advisory support. Clause 6 specifies activities in which the Bank is prohibited from engaging, including accepting deposits from the general public and engaging in speculative trading.

Part III contains provisions relating to the governance and administration of the Bank. Clause 7 establishes the Board of Directors and provides for its composition and appointment. Clause 8 provides for the disqualification of a director. Clauses 9 to 16 address the responsibilities of the Board, tenure, meetings, committees, conflicts of interest, remuneration, removal, and resignation of directors. Clauses 17 to 19 provide for the appointment and duties of the Chief Executive Officer and the appointment of the Secretary and staff of the Bank.

Part IV addresses the capital and funds of the Bank. Clause 20 provides for the authorised capital of the Bank and empowers the Minister, subject to negative resolution of the National Assembly, to amend the authorised capital. Clause 21 exempts the Bank from the payment of tax on the profits and income of the Bank. Clause 22 provides for the funds and resources of the Bank.

Part V establishes the framework for financing and the operations of the Bank. Clause 23 requires small and medium-sized enterprises applying for financing to provide information and documents necessary to verify their eligibility. Clause 24 establishes a ceiling on loans that may be granted by the Bank and empowers the Minister, subject to negative resolution of the National Assembly, to amend that ceiling. Clause 25 requires the adoption of written credit policies addressing matters such as eligibility, risk assessment, approval thresholds, monitoring and recovery. Clause 26 regulates loan restructuring and write-offs.

Part VI addresses the accounts, audit and reporting obligations of the Bank. Clauses 27 to 30 provide for the financial year of the Bank, the preparation and approval of the annual budget, the keeping and auditing of accounts by the Auditor General, and compliance with the Fiscal Management and Accountability Act in relation to annual budget and reporting obligations.

Part VII contains miscellaneous provisions. Clause 31 provides for confidentiality of information obtained by the Bank. Clause 32 exempts the Bank from the operation of the Financial Institutions Act. Clause 33 creates offences relating to false information, obstruction, destruction of records, improper disclosure of confidential information and misuse of the Bank's funds or assets, and prescribes penalties. Clause 34 empowers the Minister to make regulations for giving effect to the provisions of the Act.

Overall, the Bill seeks to establish a legislative framework for the creation and operation of a development finance institution dedicated to supporting small and medium-sized enterprises and fostering sustainable economic growth in Guyana.

Hon. Dr. Ashni K. Singh, M.P.
Senior Minister in the Office of the President with Responsibility for Finance.
